

Have You Had Your Share of the Marvelous Values of This Great Silk Sale?

SHREWD SHOPPERS CAME EARLY

They marveled. How could we sell such superb Silks for these little prices.

But you do not want arguments, only facts. Here they are!

SOME $1.00 SILKS,	39 A YARD
SOME 1.00 SILKS,	49 A YARD
SOME 1.25 SILKS,	69 A YARD
SOME 1.50 SILKS,	98 A YARD
SOME 1.75 SILKS,	1.25 A YARD

Everybody who comes smiles broadly. It's a happy Silk occasion for shrewd shoppers.

Stamped Goods at Half Price!

Do you need Doilies, Tray Cloths, Scarfs, Center Pieces or anything in the Stamped Goods line? We have stamped out all the former prices on much of our Stamped Goods and marked them in many cases at less than half price. Why? Because they are slightly mused or soiled from handling and don't look well on our counters. Embroider them first, then give them an introduction to a little soap and water (which is always very necessary after embroidering) and they will smile brightly, of course.

COURT TAKES RECESS.

And Chair of Judge H. R. Start Was Draped in Mourning.

Montpelier, Nov. 8.—The chair of Judge H. R. Start in Supreme court was draped in black this morning, news having been received last night of the death at Bakersfield. Judge Tyler at the opening of court spoke of the deceased as a man as a lawyer, as a judge and as a husband and father. The court then took a recess to tomorrow morning. After the arguments in the case of Taylor vs. Vail have been presented tomorrow the court will take another recess to next Tuesday.

The Addison county case of State vs. Almer Hier, alias Elmer Hier, was argued yesterday afternoon by State's Attorney Russell of Middlebury for the State and Judge W. H. Bliss of Middlebury for the respondent. In 1889 Hier was arrested for the theft of a heifer. He obtained bail which he forfeited and remained outside the State until last year when he returned and surrendered himself. At the last June term he was convicted of stealing this heifer and was sentenced to not less than five nor more than six years at hard labor in the state prison at Windsor and to pay costs of $160.63, a sentence which he is now serving. The respondent claims an alibi, and the case comes up on exceptions to the charge of the court. In the companion case, Hier vs. the State of Vermont, petition for a new trial, the petition was dismissed.

Yellow Fever.

It is claimed at Vera Cruz that when once a person has been attacked by yellow fever he is not again liable to it and that it does not attack the natives of the coast, those subject to yellow fever being the natives from the interior and foreigners who have taken up their residence in the place.

Probably a thousand youngsters and half that number who are older "youngsters" were attracted by the Sunny South street parade this noon and particularly the "Indian" who did stunts on a single wheel while he carried another wheel in his hands. The "Indian's" antics were many, and in his list was the seizing of a bicycle from the crowd, vaulting to the saddle and riding backwards.

In addition to the claims presented at the Vermont court of claims, as reported yesterday, Dennis Sployd and seven others of Northfield presented claims for $2 each for witness fees as state witnesses in the arson case of state vs. Donahue, tried three years ago in Washington county court. They had their regular certificates from the state's attorney for their pay, but held them until after court had adjourned and the county clerk had settled with the state auditor, and the clerk has since refused to pay these certificates.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Parents are particularly requested to instruct their children against doing anything in any way that will disgrace or destroy the street signs that have been put up recently. It has come to our notice that there are quite a few of the signs defaced and the enamel broken by boys throwing stones. The City Council have therefore caused this notice and warning to be published to the effect that any boys caught throwing stones at, or in any other way doing anything that will tend to destroy or deface any street sign in the city, will be punished as the law provides.

By order of the City Council.

McCLELLAN'S ELECTION

TO BE CONTESTED BY HEARST IN NEW YORK

CLAIM OF FRAUD.

Municipal League Says It Has Evidence of 50,000 Illegal Votes.

New York, Nov. 8.—Max Ihmsen of the municipal league said last night that the league has evidence of 50,000 illegal votes having been cast. He said that frauds have been discovered in all five boroughs and that the law committee of the league is gathering all evidence.

UTTER RE-ELECTED.

Rhode Islands Governor Has Decreased Plurality.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 8.—The indications were that Gov. George H. Utter, Republican, has carried Rhode Island for governor by a slight increased plurality.

AMENDMENT DEFEATED.

Constitutional Suffrage Lost in Maryland Yesterday.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—The American, a Republican newspaper, announces the defeat of the constitutional suffrage amendment by a majority of 13,990.

UNION LABOR MAN WINS.

Eugene Schmitt Mayor of San Francisco by 11,000.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Complete returns from every precinct in the city show Schmitt defeated Partridge for mayor by a plurality of 11,504. The victory carried with it the entire union labor ticket.

REPUBLICANS WIN CHICAGO.

Only One Democrat Elected Yesterday—Term of Mayor Lengthened.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—The Republicans made a clean sweep of the election in Chicago and Cook county yesterday, electing all of their candidates with the exception of one man. The sole Democrat to reach office was Welch, a candidate for the trustee of the Sanitary district.

The Republicans elected judges of the superior court, one judge to fill a vacancy on the bench of the superior court, a judge of the circuit court, and eight out of nine members of the board of sanitary trustees.

A number of important questions were up for consideration by the voters and all of them were carried by large majorities. They included an amendment to the charter of the city by virtue of which the term of the mayor is lengthened from two to four years; the right of the city to regulate the price of gas and authority to operate an electric light plant and sell to private consumers all of the current not used for municipal purposes.

QUITS AFTER 25 YEARS.

Boss Cox in Ohio Says He Is Still a Republican.

Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—George B. Cox, the well known Republican leader, last night gave the following statement, withdrawing from active service in the Republican party:

"Now that the election is over and the people have signified their preference for city, county and state officials, and I sincerely trust they have selected wisely, I wish to announce to the public that from this day, after 25 years of active service in the ranks of the Republican party, my personal activity in politics shall cease. I will continue to vote the Republican ticket, but others must bear the burden of future campaigns. To the local Republican organization and the many friends that have stood with us in the past, I tender most grateful thanks for their unwavering loyalty and support. I hope for their future good welfare."
(Signed.)
"GEO. B. COX."

IN CONNECTICUT.

The Republicans Made Clean Sweep in Two Cities.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 8.—The election in Connecticut yesterday was confined to the cities of Bridgeport and Ansonia, where the regular city elections were held. The Democratic administrations which had been in power for four years, or two terms, were defeated in both places, the Republicans making almost a clean sweep. Mayor Mulvihill of Bridgeport was defeated by Marcus L. Reynolds, the Republican candidate, by over 500 votes, and in Ansonia Alton Farrell, the Republican candidate, defeated Mayor Stephen Charters by 289 votes.

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY CUT.

Light Vote Was Cast in Virginia Yesterday.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—The indications are that the Democrats have carried the state but by a very much smaller majority than usual.

In Richmond, of a total vote of about 7,000 only about 3,500 were polled.
